Works and lives in Glasgow, United Kingdom, and Seoul, South Korea

Biography

Hongil Yoon is from South Korea, Seoul, and currently working and living in Glasgow, United Kingdom. He explores the visualisation of ambiguity space in the mentality fragmented ability to memory in this age of oblivion. Through his artistic practice, he visualises this feature of images with uncertain emotions and his narratives. He recently had the solo exhibition The Blair Witch Project in Glasgow, Scotland(UK). Also, he participated in various group exhibitions mainly in UK. In addition, he recently attained the J D Kelly Memorial Prize for the best first year in Fine Art by The Glasgow School of Art. He is now studying Painting and Printmaking at the Glasgow School of Art.
